Dr. C. J. Dangaria
Vice Chancellor,
Navsari Agricultural University, Navsari .

Dear Sir

Subject : P.P. Chhabria Finolex Award for excellence in agriculture education.

Education is the foundation of leading a successful life. The definition of success may differ from person to person, but for every person education is the first step towards achieving his/her goal in life.

Young minds need support, guidance and training in order to achieve his or her goals. Universities and Colleges fulfil the aim of specialized education after the age of 16.

It is very well said by Dr Sarvapalli Radhakrishna, "The main function of universities is not to grant degrees and diplomas, but to develop university spirit and advance learning. The former is impossible without corporate life and latter without honors and post-graduate." Today's youth will determine the due course of our nation. They are the ones who can take our country forward. Our country is an agrarian economy and the role of universities is vital in creating fine graduates in this field.

Shri P.P. Chhabria founder of Finolex Group contributed towards the progress of our country by developing superior quality products for agriculture. We take pride in honoring students with the award being associated with great visionary like him.

We, at Finolex believe in performance with purpose and are deeply concerned about the student community especially in the agriculture sector. To encourage those who have achieved academic excellence in this field and are ready to conquer new challenges in their professional life, we would like to honor them with following prizes:

- 1st Rank- Cash Prize- Rs. 10,000 along with a Medal
- 2nd Rank-Cash Prize- Rs. 7,000 along with a Medal
- 3rd Rank- Cash Prize-Rs. 5,000 along with a Medal

We trust that you will appreciate our endeavor to honor and encourage the students and build a fruitful association with your university.

We look forward to your positive response towards this initiative.

Warm regards

Prakash Chhabria
