

Pro-Active Disclosure

Department of Entomology

N. M. College of Agriculture

The Proactive disclosure increases the flow of information through department pushing information out into the community without the need to make a formal application under a legislative authority such as the RTI Act. The RTI Act supports and encourages proactive disclosure. It releases cost free information into the community faster.

Not Applicable