

Objectives

1. To impart short duration training to the farmers in farm technology and farm management through self experience.
2. To provide need based short duration training opportunities to the farming communities on agriculture and allied aspects.
3. To educate rural youths to establish themselves in farming business.
4. To assist the farmers to apply research finding to their own farms.
5. To develop skills in farmers for better utilization of the natural and other resources like land, capital & labors through on campus training.
6. To give required guidance to the farmers for bringing out desirable changes in farming profession looking to their need.
7. To impart training to the farm women in various aspects related to agriculture, animal husbandry, home science, fruit preservation and allied subjects.