So, they need to write an effective Resume/CV. And ironically, for most of them, this might become a night mare!!!

Even after getting an interview call from the prospective employer, they may feel unprepared and nervous, as it is always difficult for a job seeker to face the interviewer, especially for freshers who are just out of college, seeking a job. Most people do badly at job interviews not because they are incompetent, but simply because they are just plain nervous. On the day of interview, sweating palms and stomach butterflies are to be expected. But, good news is that writing an effective resume & giving interview is a skill, and just like any other skill, it too can be developed. One can reduce the stress level by knowing some common mistakes that candidates make in preparing their Resume/CV as well as while meeting with potential employers and avoiding them.
